One of the Defendants Explains the Work of the Gang.

Aueurn (N. Y.), November 29th.—The United States Court continued in session to-day, the object being to complete the opium conspiracy case as soon as possible. John W. Stone, one of the defindant, while they were both attending the United States Court at Utica as counsel for Gardner in a samuggling case, that they should bride the necessary Custom-house officials at Ogdensburg and substitute a spurions article for the imported opium. He identified letters which he had written to both Haynes and Gardner, and detailed at length how the opium was taken from the Custom-house at Ogdensburg and shipped to Chicago at the time of his arrest, as some taken from the Custom-house at Ogdensburg and shipped to Chicago at the time of his arrest, as some taken from the Custom-house at Ogdensburg and shipped to Chicago at the time of his arrest, as some taken from the Custom-house at Ogdensburg. Judge Brundage, counsel for Haynes, subjected the witness to a rigid cross-examination, which will be continued to-morrow.

"TWO DANGERS."

Editor Grady Discusses the Solid South and Its Dangers.

Augusta (Ga.), November 29th.—Grady, editor of the Atlanta Constitution, addressed a large audience to day, in cluding Governor Richardson, of south Carolina, Senators Butler, Ransom and Colquitt, and many other prominent people of Georgia and South Carolina. He spoke of how the people of these two States had fought through two revo utions side by side. He then said that the South is now confronted by two dangers. By remaining solid it will force a permanent sectional alignment, in which it has everything to lose and nothing to gain. By dividing it will debauch its political system, destroy the detenses of its social integrity, and put the balance of power in the hands of an ignorant and dangerous class. Grady discussed these propositions at length. He said that the solid South invites the solid North, from which the South—being in the minority—has little to hope.

and and dangerous class. Grady discussed inestination and the dangerous class. Grady discussed insection and analogous class. Grady discussed insection and analogous class of the south-being in the minority—has little to hope. The South had thirty-eight per cent. of the electroral vote in 1889, but it is doubtful if she will have over twenty-five per cent. in 1890.

To remain silent, therefore, is to incur the danger of being in a perpetual minority and tooyernment. But this particular the covernment. But the subtraction in the covernment. But the subtraction is to have her whole vote divided into factions and each faction bidding for the negro was enfranchised the South was condemned to solidity as surely as self-problems and the entire ballot-box will be hope lessly debauched, all approaches thereto made completed the subtraction in the contraction of the subtraction in the subtraction in the subtraction in the orderly unfolding of a plan but in hot impulse and passion, against the report of the subtraction in the problems and to the peril of public government which rests at last on a pure and unsulfied suffrage. If it is to urged that it was the inexonable read to the problems and to the peril of public government which rests at last on a pure and unsulfied suffrage. If it is to make the inexonable read to the problems and the beginning of its direct and ultimate results, and shall hold it to be—in spite of defeat—forever honorable and sacred. This is our problem, and it will dominate all other the subtraction in the political as well as social, integrity of her white race, and appeal to the world for patience, and quistice.

Speaking of the relations between the whites and negroes, Grady contended that they were friendly. "Let us send a few words to the fairminded Republicans of the North. Here is the fundamental assertion—the negroes of the South can not be kept in antagonism with their white neighbors, for the intimacy and friendliness of the relation forbids. This friendliness is a most important factor of the problem—one that the North has never taken account of, and it seems never will. It explains an otherwise inexplicable thing—the fidelity and loyalty of the negro during the war to the woman and children left in his care. Though unexpected in slavery, it explains the miracle of 1864. Though not confessed, it must explain the miracle of 1888."

THANKSGIVING DAY. How the Holiday Was Observed Throughout the Country.

AT HARRISON'S HOME.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 2% L.—Thanksgiving was generally observed in this city, Sunday quiet prevailing on the business streets. Union services were held in the Second Presbyterian Church. General and Mrs. Harrison, Mrs. Brown and Mr. and Mrs. McKee were in attendance. The congregation was a large one.

The day was strictly observed as a holiday at the Harrison residence. Private Secretary Halford was at his desk in the General's library for a couple of hours during the morning, assorting and reading the morning mail, but beyond this work and politics were for the day eschewed.

AT CHICAGO.

CHICAGO, November 29th.—Thanksgiving Day was generally observed throughout the city.

A HUMANITARIAN CUSTOM. Boston, November 24th.—in accordance with a Thanksgiving custom, ten men were pardoned from the state Prison by Governor Ames to-day. TIME-HONORED CUSTOMS.

NEW YORK, November 29th.—Thanksgiving Day is observed throughout the Eastern and Middle States in the customary way, New England being the seat of most vigorous observance. There was the general religious austerity of the forenoon, and the unbounded hilarity of the afternoon in the rural districts, around tables covered with turkeys, mince and pumpkin pies and other pleasing causes of indigestion. Not less than twenty thousand New Yorkers and families yesterday went away to rural sections and New England to rusticate around the family board. tions and New England to rusticate around the family board.

The old English custom of going into the country at holidays is more observed this year than on any previous Thanksgiving, and is gaining annually in favor with leading society people ing annually in favor with leading society people.

New York's business section was entirely closed and deserted. Only one nawspaper, the World, published this afternoon, and its contents are confined largely to an account of local athletic events.

The emigrants who reached Castle Garden this morning were served, to the number of several hundred, with turkey dinner, as an introduction to this hospitable country,

Although business is closed for the day there are pictures of California seenery, the announcements of California excursions conspicuously displayed at headquarters of the Pioneers, and elsewhere California to-day is recalled warmly in the part of thanksgiving.

A Sale of High-priced Trotters in New York.

New York, November 29th. — Mayor-elect Hugh J. Grant has sold his famous trotter, Kenilworth (2:18½4), to John Scannell for $3,000. At the same sale, Matt Byrnes, trainer for J. B. Haggin. of San Francisco, purchased Duff Gordon, a noted roadster, for $7.375, after a brisk competition with jockey McLaughlin. Sweepstakes (secord 2:2½6), by Kentucky Prince, was purchased by Gabe Case for $2,400. He will be used on the road. Stockwell, a five-year-old, brought $600, and went to the stable of W. H. Williams.

A DAY OF BLOODSHED. Desperate Street Battle Between Police and Negroes in Savannah.

Chicago, November 29th.—A, meeting of 250 people at Thalia Hall this afternoon was as close an imitation as possible of the Anarchist gatherings on the Thanksgiving preceding the Haymarket outbreak. The speakers were guarded in their utterances, but the spirit of the assemblage was shown by the speeches.

The principal speaker was Albert Curlin. He said the present system of society was not said the present system of society was not said the present. The principal speaker was Albert Curlin. He said the present system of society was not worth giving thanks for, but was worth cursing to the lowest depths of hell. Whom should they thank? God? If there was a God, what a monster he must be to permit so much misery! Let the fools be thankful for their wretchedness! The workingmen should stand together until their ideals of Socialism and Anarchism were fully realized.

Cleveland Attempts a Bit of Humor, But Tells a Sad Truth. Washington, November 29th.—The Washington High School Review of this city publishes under date of November 27th, and with the leading, "Was It Presentiment?" the following communication from President Cleveland to het pares.

A New York Preacher Takes a Shy at Bis Excellency, Dave Hill. New York, November 29th.—Rev. William Lloyd, of the Central Congregational Church preached at the Church of the Disciples to day He said of Hill's election: "If the righteour men had looked to the control of the civil Gov ernment that man would never have been sent back to Albany as Governor of New York, who was full of corruption, and whose fingers had refused to sign every bill passed for the sup-pression of that worst evil to society, the liquor saloon." This thrust at Governor Hill was ap-planded.

BECOMING BOLD.

A New York Village Invaded and Pillwashington, November 29th. — President Cleveland and Mrs. Cleveland extended Thanksgiving services at the Central Presbyterian Church to-day. Rev. A. W. Pitzer preached. After the service the President reviewed the parade of the militia of the District of Columbia, and then resumed work upon his last annual message. All the Departments were closed to-day, and no public business has been transacted.

AS BAD AS A RIOT. A Football Game in Which Many Players Were Roughly Used.

New York, November 29th.—In the football game to-day the University of Pennsylvania defeated the Wesleyans, 18 to 6. The game was a very exciting one, and the bruises and bangs were well distributed. Wagenhaurst of the Pennsylvanias was knocked senseless, Gardner of the Wesleyans was eriously injured, Crane of the Wesleyans was cut about the mouth, and Manchester of the Wesleyans was so badly hurt that he quit in the field.

A GLEAN OF HOPE. Possibility of the Safety of the Allentown's Sailors. New York, November 22th.—There are rumors that the crew of the lost steamship Allentown, which was lost off Cohasset, Mass., has been saved. The steamship was spoken during the hight of the gale and was found to be abandoned. The supposition is that the crew took to the boats. On this slim foundation is built the hope that her crew of eighteen may yet be heard from.

HIS AIM WAS POOR. A Drunken Man Shoots at Kilrain and Mitchell in a Theater.

Train Wrecked by Strikers. INDIANAPOLIS, November 29th.—The switchmen's strike is no nearer a settlement than yesterday. The Superintendents met to-day and offered rewards for the arrest of persons injuring property. A freight train on the Ohie, Indiana and Western road was ditched by strikers last night, and eight cars wrecked. The Superintendents will meet a joint committee of the strikers and engineers to-morrow. A Chance for Tommy Warren.

New York, November 29th.—Frank Murphy, the feather-weight pugilist says: "I will agree to fight Tommy Warren at 118 pounds, with any size gloves, within three months from this time for a purse of $2,000 at the rooms of the California Athletic Club in San Francisco, the club to give the purse and manage the whole business." Practical Lawrence Barrett. New York, November 29th.—Lawrence Barrett emphatically denies the rumor that he and made the first sale of stock from his Tarrytown stables, selling Cartridge, a black two-year-old, "There is no reason why we should," said he, "as we have made more money together than ler weanling.

Fierce Broadsword Contest. New Haven (Conn.). November 29th.—The Lynn-Orlofski mounted broadsword contest, which the New Haven police stopped some weeks ago because of the ugly temper shown by Orlofski, was finished to-day at Berlin. Lynn sean showed his superjoint over the German again showed his superiority over the German champion, and quickly ran his score up to six-teen, winning the stakes and gate-money. The fight was very fierce at times.

The Flag is Still There. New York, November 29th.—Among the passengers who arrived to-day from Port-au-Prince in the steamer Frederick Hendrick are Chief Officer Smith, Chief Engineer Malcom and twenty-two of the crew of the steamer Haytian Republic, sent home by the American Consul. Captain Compton still remains aboard his ship, with the American fiag flying.

AT THE METROFOLIS.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 29th.—Thanksgiving was observed in the usual manner te-day. The stores throughout the city were closed, no business was transacted at the Municipal, State and Federal offices, and the city presented a holiday appearance. The day was bright and pleasant, and thousands of people enjoyed the athletic sports, games and races which offered a chance for amusement. The cable line did a large business, and the Park and Cliff had a very large number of visitors. The little ones of the kindergartens were provided for, the inmates of the kindergartens were provided for, the inmates of the Almshouse were not forgotten, and as far as the generous and charitable were able, all those who would otherwise have probably had reason to be sorrowful to-day, were provided with the good cheer which the day seems to call for.

Some time early last March, a fire occurred at the winery of the Margherita designation-that has grown up of saying Vineyard, near Fresno, owned in part by to prisoners, on being sentenced to death, E. The detectives made, suggestion communicate the reason to the or pretended to make startling disclosures. officer empowered to pardon. There is no Tierces of wine had been buried in the possibility of shifting responsibility from vineyard. Hogsheads had been concealed in judicial to executive shoulders in capital the harness-house of the barn. Barrels and cases, except where there is discovery, after casks had been carted to the mountains and legal exhaustion, of reliable new and maconcealed in owlish ravines. These sensa- terial testimony raising a serious doubt as tional disclosures were spread broadcast to guilt. But the suggestion to the conthrough the land by an enterprising news demned to apply for pardon is never necesgathering association, and, for a time, an hon- sary. He and his friends know of his orable and reputable citizen rested under right of petition and are not slow to avail the shadow of a great crime. In this way the of it. To add to it the judicial suggestion insurance companies produced an apparent is gratuitous interference with a jury's veralliance between their refusal to pay an dict and the Executive's prerogative, unhonest loss and the highest good of society; but the unfortunate vineyardist refused to submit tamely to the outrage attempted to be perpetrated, and challenged judicial inquiry. The case has just been heard by the Superior Court of Fresno county. The hiding in the vineyard proved to be a couple of harmless casks, buried in pursuance of suggestions made by the Professor of Agriculture of the State University, in the direction of ripening the wine. The ponderous secretion of hogsheads in the harness house proved to be a few barrels which were outside of the wine cellar at the time of the fire, and were rolled into honest loss and the highest good of society; called for under any circumstances, indethe time of the fire, and were rolled into the harness house, since there remained clared he was not entitled to. no other means of protecting them from the weather. The storage of hogsheads in secret ravines of distant mountains turns out to be a complete myth, and under the calcium light of judicial inquiry a jury of twelve men returned in five minutes with a verdict for the plaintiff for the value of the amount of the insurance policy, with interest. Thus the highest ends of justice are subserved in same time the reputation of an honorable man is saved from obloquy. Properly conducted insurance against loss by fire is a great public beneficence, but in the hands of mean and contemptible men, willing to disgrace every patron who may be so unfortunate as to incur a fire loss, and to employ the services of those scandal scavengers known as private detectives, the whole business will become disreputable,

Without discussing the principle involved, and which we do not question, it should be stated that the Alla reaches its conclusion from mistaken premises. Drager did not at any time confess to the murder. On the contrary, he has strenuously insisted that he did not aid in it, and knew nothing of it, though it is proven he was an "accomplice after the fact." The truth is, and which Mr. Hume has misapprehended, that at no time was any promise of clemency made to Drager or either of the other murderers. His testimony, or statement, like all the others, was varied, contradictory and unreliable, and was voluntary. He, as were the others, was told that any statement he made might be used against him. Moreover, it was beyond all question established on the trial that Drager's statements were false in all * material matters, and there was also irrefutable evidence of a conspiracy by the three; as, for instance, their prior statements before going to the Lowell farm: and again, the testimony of a wholly disinterested witness, that several hours after the murder the three men were seen upon the Lowell premises together, and within a few feet of the body of the victim, though Drager insisted that he was not present, but after the killing fled and concealed

The Alta will readily see the illogical character of adopting a policy such as that, in order to incite men to give up guilty secrets. In short, the theory of the Alta, applied in the Lowell case, would save from the extreme penalty of the law all three murderers, and thus encourage rather than prevent crime.

THE dispatches from Paris yesterday were dramatically sensational. The story runs that Premier Floquet had arranged for the arrest of General Boulanger and the demonstration at the grave of Baudin. The rumor went to the extent of giving wings to the canard that even the cells for the anticipated prisoners had been prepared, but the alleged fact becoming known, the Minister was obliged to abandon the scheme. There is probably not one word of truth in the story. It is more than likely that Boulanger's friends evolved the thing from their fancy for the express purpose of giving new and sensational importance to Boulanger. The pompous man lives upon his nerves; if he is not posing before the public and quivering upon the edge of sensationalism, he is unhappy. There was danger of France forgetting him, and of his settling down into the groove of an ordinary, and very ordinary, Deputy. Something had to be his friends on Sunday, on the occasion of the financial aspect of the case, and at the pared, but the alleged fact becoming and all moral distinction between grand larceny and fire insurance will be ob-MERCY TO CRIMINALS.

Our San Francisco contemporary, the Alta, thinks the Governor should commute the sentence of death passed upon Drager, one of the Lowell murderers, to imprisonment for life, on the ground stated by Detective Hume, that Drager's testimony gave the first and only clue to the crime, and led to the convictions secured. The reason advanced is, that revealing crime by a conspirator or a participant or distribution. Something had to be done to renew public interest in him, hence the absurd fiction concerning his proposed arrest. MYERS' LAST DAY.

HIS EXECUTION TO TAKE PLACE IN PLACERVILLE TO-DAY.

He Sticks to His Story that He Shot John Lowell Accidentally-Drager and Olsen.

John Henry Myers, one of the men convicted of the murder of John Lowell, at his ranch in El Dorado county, on the 24th of March last, will be executed at 1 o'clock this afternoon in the yard of the Court-house at Placerville. Up In declining to commute the death to Wednesday it was supposed that John Olsen sentence of certain murderers convicted and William Drager, the other two men convicted very recently, Governor Waterman has with Myers, would be executed at the same time, and everything had been arranged for a triple hanging. On that day, however, the following notice was filed in the Superior Court of El Dorado county:

El Dorado county:

In the Superior Court of the county of El Dorado, State of California.

The People of the State of California vs. John Henry Myers, John Olsen and William Drager To M. P. Bennett, District Attorney of said El Dorado county, and attorney for plaintiff in above action—You will please take notice that the defendants, John Olsen and William Drager in the above entitled action, hereby appeal to the Supreme Court of this State from the judgment rendered and entered against them in the said Superior Court on the 9th day of October, 1888, and also from the order denying said defendants' motion for a new trial, made and entered in the minutes of said Court on said 9th day of October, 1888.

Dated this 28th day of November, 1888.

Judge Arnot, of Alpine county, who is acting r Judge Williams, who is in the East, ordered as filed: Was filed:
By agreement of parties in open Court, it is ordered that the time for preparing and serving a bill of exceptions on the part of said defendants, John Olsen and William Drager, in the above entitled action be and the same is hereby extended forty days from and after this date.
This will of course act as a stay of execution extended forty days from and after this date. This will of course act as a stay of execution in the case of Drager and Olsen, but will not prevent the carrying out of the sentence of death upon Myers. When the prisoners Olsen and Drager were informed of the notice of appeal in their case the former expressed himself as highly pleased, but the latter appeared entirely indifferent, and remarked that he was ready to die and willing to go. He has manifested this spirit ever since he was first put upon trial in Placerville, and has never appeared to think there was any chance of escaping the gallows.

Myers's last statement.

Myers is so completely broken down in spirits that it is feared he will not have strength enough left to walk to the gallows. He has made another statement, which is substantially the same as that made by him immediately after his conviction, and which is as follows:

"Knowing that I am about to die I make the following statement, and call on God as a witness that I tell God's truth. Olsen and me were renting the Klotz ranch, and stayed there up to March 15, 1888. Olsen had no money to pay the rent, and he went to Mr. Steen's, at Twenty-fifth and J streets, Sacramento, to board.

"I left the ranch March 20th, and Steen told me to board at his place until I got work. I told Drager and Olsen to go with me to the Lowell ranch, where I had a contract to chop wood. I told Drager that if we did not get a job cutting wood we would go to Mr. Williams' or Mr. Jackson's on the Marysville road, as they had some horses to sell.

Monday or Tuesday. Drager and I wanted to get a drink of water in the house. Lowell was standing by the hind wheel of the wagon in front of the house. Drager and I were standing by the door. I wanted to take my gun from my shoulder. I got the barrel in front and the stock behind, and the trigger got hold of my coat and went off accidentally, shooting Mr. Lowell in the back of the neck. He fell down and said something I could not understand. "Olsen and Drager ran away. Lowell was on the ground nearly dead. I did not know what to do. I took the gun and struck him over the head to end his misery. I pulled him alone in-Monday or Tuesday. Drager and I wanted to

Myers then tells of disposing of the horses, and

Myers then tells of disposing of the horses, and concludes:

"This is all I have to say, all I can remember, and my last word. The prisoners advised me to put the blame on Oisen and Drager, they being single and me having a family.
"I am very sorry about the lies I have told, and did wrong to them. They never knew about this crime before, and Drager and Oisen took no part in the killing whatever. I am now to my grave, and to die, and I will take my death with pleasure. So I say my last farewell to all. This is my last true statement for God, forever. Good-by, forever."

Sheriff Anderson provided a splendid dinner for the condemned men yesterday, but Myers could not eat, and lay upon his cot sobbing and crying. The others did justice to the good things provided. The scaffold is all in readiness, and was inspected by hundreds of curious people yesterday.

"I PAID out hundreds of dollars for medicine for catarrh," writes a lady in Provi-dence, R. I., "but Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine which has done me per

Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, aliays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best-known remedy for diarrhea, whether arising from teething or other causes. HE TOOK THE WRONG MEDICINE. Robert Stewart, of Petaluma, recently had a queer experience. He writes:

"Carbuncles and boils afflicted my face and neck for weeks. Finally I procured a bottle of one of the leading sarsaparillas. To my surprise it made matters worse. This made me lose faith in sarsaparillas, but seeing a statement that Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla dried up boils and face eruptions instead of forcing more out as the potash sarsaparillas ishing. The carbuncles and boils began to dry up, and in two weeks my face was as well and smooth as ever. My brother also took a bottle with the same benefit. ROBERT STEWART, "Petaluma, Cal."

[Explanatory Note-The mineral iodide of potash, which is the basis of nearly all other sarsaparillas, attacks the blood direct, hence forces impurities through the skin, creating more boils and pimples. Joy's Vegetable Sar-saparilla acts oppositely. Its vegetable alter-atives stimulate the various secretive organs and thus eliminate all impurities through the natural channels, hence dries up pimples and skin eruptions at once. The above testimon-ial is a case in point.

The "California Exhibit on Wheels" to be Ready on Monday. The State Board of Trade has issued the following letter, which is important to those intending to be represented in the exhibit about to leave California for the East, to be there shown on board of cars: shown on board of cars:

California State Board of Trade, \ 655 Market St., S. F., November 28, 1888. \ \ Dear Sirs: Thanks to the personal attention given by General T. H. Goodman, General Passenger Agent Southern Pacific Company, originator of the idea "California on wheels exhibit," he will, have the cars ready for our exhibit Mooday, December 3d. You are therefore urged to have yours sent so as to reach us not later than the 4th of December.

The advantages of this exhibit, together with the liberality of the officer referred to and the company he represents, ought to secure your choicest specimens. Yours truly,

John Q. Brown, General Manager.

J. M. Davies, Secretary.

The two cars in which the exhibit will be conveyed are nearly ready in the Oakland yards.

The two cars in which the exhibit will be conveyed are nearly ready in the Oakland yards. The greatest care has been exercised in arranging the cars, which have been entirely refitted and equipped. The exhibition car has been fitted with shelves and racks to utilize every foot of available space. The second car is fitted out for living purposes for those in charge of the exhibit, and is joined to the first car by a vestibule connection. Next Monday the cars will be removed to the Oakland mole, where the exhibits will be placed in order for the long trip. Then the plan is to take the cars to Fourth and Townsend streets, in San Francisco, where the public may inspect the exhibit for a few days, when the train, drawn by a special locomotive, will start on its long tour of four months, or longer if the results justify replenishing the exhibits. Among the exhibits is one of oranges in bulk and in jars from Butte, and 600 jars of every kind of cereal grown in the State. Besides, there will be dried fruit in cases, fruits of all kinds in jars, fresh apples, grapes and pears, pickled olives and olive oil, persimmons, pampas grass, palms, all varieties of California wines, an illustration of points of natural wonder in the State, together with forest woods.

After going through to Omaha without stops, the train will move through the States of Kansas, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan, Jowa, Ohio, New York and the New England States. An enormous amount of reading matter will be taken along, descriptive of the State's resources. E. J. McDonaid, Assistant Secretary of the State Board of Trade, and Messrs. Johnson and Tebbitts, of the Southern Pacific, will have charge of the exhibit.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

It Was Generally Observed in Sacramento Yesterday. The National Thanksgiving Day was appropriately observed in Sacramento yesterday. All of the public offices and most of the business houses were closed. The people entered into the spirit of the day and each testified to his sense of gratitude in accordance with the dictates of his own conscience. Aside from the services in the churches the principal feature of the day in Sacramento was the unveiling of the monument erected by the Native Sons of the Golden West to the memory of General A. M. Winn. A full report of the ceremonies appears elsewhere in the Record-Union this morning.

Union services were held by the congregations of the several Protestant churches in the Central Methodist Episcopal Church on Eleventh street. The auditorium was tastefully decorated with flowers and evergreens, and presented a very handsome appearance. Within the chancel were Rev. J. E. Hopper, Rev. W. C. Merrill, Rev. A. C. Herrick, Rev. Thomas Filben, Ray. O. Summers, Rev. J. E. Wheeler, Rev. Mr. Early and Rev. J. Baumgartner. The exercises opened with an invocation by Rev. W. C. Merrill, and the Rev. J. E. Hopper preached an eloquent and impressive sermon.

At the Catholic Church, mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Bouchard at 7 o'clock and by Rev. Father Haupts at 8 o'clock. There was a special service-and mass at the Convent, attended by the Society of the Children of Mary.

At the Young Men's Christian Association rooms, the Ladies' Central Committee and members gave a Thanksgiving dinner in the afternoon to young men away from homes. Nearly 100 accepted the invitation, and when at table each one was requested to give his place of birth and native home, it was found that nearly every State and country was represented. A splendid dinner was served, and apparently a very agreeable hour was spent by all. In the evening a Thanksgiving praise service and social gathering was held, and a pleasing musical and literary programme presented. The rooms were crowded with visitors and members throughout the evening. dictates of his own conscience. Aside from the services in the churches the principal feature of Metropolitan Theater. A packed house greeted Halfen and Hart in "Later On" last night. There is nothing in the 'play;" it is not even entitled to be so styled. If the singing, dancing and character acting had been made the "numbers" of a variety programme it would have done very well, for Hallen and Hart are capital in variety entertainment, and they have others about them who sing and dance well, Mr. Dyllyn, a baritone, being especially worthy of mention as a vocalist. But to speak of the disconnected, plotless and rubbishy stuff thrown together in "later On" as a play, a burlesque, a satire, or even an extravaganza, is not warranted. No one acts in real life in any way that will justify the performance of last night being called a burlesque of reality, or a satire upon folly. But the audience, fresh from Thanksgiving dinners, and anxious to be pleased, laughed and applanded heartily, and was content with Hallen's. Hart's and Kelly's grotesque performances, and their character acting, singing and daucing, which was up to the best variety standard. There are a number of women introduced into the play in very short skirts, for no other apparent reason than to show their ankles and calves. The modern low comedy playwright appears to be driven to this by managers, and they in turn defend themselves by exhibiting the box sheet. No matter what the burlesque or farce nowadays, there must, it appears, be a half dozen or so women in short skirts, striding and sliding or wriggling about the stage, and pretending to represent women of every-day life, at seaside, watering place or hotel. It is the veriest fiction and a libel upon reality, and also as disgusting as is the exceedingly hoodlum-like manners of these skirt shorn beauties whom the plays require to fall into the first arms that offer, and to accept the love-making of characters in the play they have not seen ten seconds before. What sort of women does this kind of action suggest? The stage is certainly going downward, if the managers and medern playwrights rule. "Later On" will be repested to-night. The prize for the solution of the arithmetical puzzle offered by the management has not yet been solved. had been made the "numbers" of a variety programme it would have done very well, for management has not yet been solved.

Daniel Suilv. Daniel Sully, one of the best representative Irish actors ever on the stage, comes to the Metropolitan Theater for the third time Monday evening. This time he brings a new comedy, "The Capital Prize." If it comes anywhere near to what Mr. Sully has given us in the past, we can be assured of a thoroughly enjoyable comedy performance: one clean, wholesome and ustural, and that does not base its claims for patronage upon short skirts stout ankles and for patronage upon short skirks, stout ankles and a mere play upon words. Sully is a comedian of merit, and does not burlesque the Irishman or distort his eccentricities or mannerisms, but presents very nearly the reflection of reality.

Very Disgraceful.

A most disgraceful thing occurred in front of Armory Hall last night during the holding of the St. Rose Church festival. Two drunken individuals stood on the sidewalk in front of the hall and occasionally went up the stairway to the main entrance and in loud voices made the very air blue with oaths and the most inaceent language. They insulted everyone who came in or went out, and their profanity could be heard a block away. The most disgraceful thing about it was that neither were over fifteen years of age.

PERSENTATION OF THE MONUMENT.

Chairman of the Winn Monument Commission, Charles M. Belsha

sion, Charles M. Belshaw, presented the monument to the N. S. G. W. in the following appropriate remarks:

Mr. President, Brother Natives, Ladies and Gentlemen: It is with feelings of reverence land pride that I stand before you to day. I revere the memory of that dear old man which we this day commemorate, and I am prond in the knowledge that the Native Sons of the Golden West have at last given substantial proof of their gratitude to this grand old pioneer. General A. M. Winn, the founder and protector of our beloved organization. The monument which stands before you to-day serves not only to mark the resting-place of our beloved godfather, but is a mute witness to the prosperity and energy of the Native Sons of the Golden West. When time shall have been laid away in our final resting-place, then will this granite column call to minds of generations yet unborn the native sons, and many will be the bright reminiscences of our present band of loyal sons scattered throughout our Golden State. Worthy Grand President, on behalf of the General Winn Monument Commission, I have the honor of presenting to you for the Native Sons of the Golden West, this magnificent monument. May it be a constant reminder of the duties we owe to God, our country and each other, and let us hope as this mass of stone crumbles and decays, that the Order of the Native Sons will continue to enlarge and prosper in friendship, lowe and charity.

material of which it was to be composed could not have been more happily made. I know no material which could more fittingly represent the strength and depth of the character of the founder of our Order than the granite; for while it forms the foundations of the earth, it yet reaches highest toward heaven and into the realms of eternal silence.

You have wisely caused it to face equally toward the four quarters of the globe. Let the truth become thereby known unto all succeeding generations, as it is now to us, that he of whom this monument is in commemoration had no blinded or shriveled side, but was full-rounded and perfect in all directions, with a soul open to the light and filled with the love of man, which caused him to gather together that little hand from which our Order has sprung. Gratefully, then, on behalf of this great Order, I accept from you this monument

And here and now, in the presence of this assembly, do I dedicate it to the sentiment of loyalty, freedom and nativity. And until our Order shall have passed away; until there shall remain in this broad land no man capable of self-sacrifice, or whose heart beats to a pure and lofty devotion; until the earth shall be rolled dogether like a scroll, and the stars no longer move in their appointed paths; until then may it stand in the early morning and in the sunset light; chaste in thought, pure and noble in its execution; a symbol unto the generations of the gratitude that fills our hearts.

And now my brothers, on this day of public thanksgiving, and as we retire from these solemn services, let us give thanks unto God for the manifold blessings we enjoy; let us reverently pray that as the years go by we shall grow stronger and richer in our own lives, and tuller in the fruits of our labor, until we shall have finally realized in a splendid and perfect success the dreams, the hopes and the aspirations of him who is now silent forever.

Mr. President, Native Sons: The organization of Native Daughters of the Golden West being founded, indentically with that of the Native Sons, upon principles which must foster and perpetuate a pride in and a love for the grand and peerless State of our birth, as well as veneration for the noble pioneer tathers and mothers who gave it to us, Califia Parlor, No. 22, N. Charles I. Weller, the Orator of the Day, spoke as follows:

**Ladies and Gentlemen, Native Sons of the Golden West: We have gathered here to-day to pay our tribute of love and affection to the memory of a man whose name will last so long as the Order of Native Sons shall endure, and whose labors in our behalf will be blessed by thousands yet unborn, who, in the future years will gather here to look with grateful eyes upon this monument their fathers have erected.

General A. M. Winn, whose last and greatest work we have commemorated, was born in Pennsylvania on April 12, 1819. After reaching the age of twenty-one he removed to Jacksonville, Ohio, where he married. When twenty-four, he went with his family to Vicksburg, Mississippi, where he remained until 1849. In this year, ever to be remembered in the history of our beloved State, when thousands of the best and bravest from the rock-bound coast of New England, the broad savannahs of the South and the iboundless praires of the West, flocked to the new Golconda on the shores of the Pacific, General Winn arrived in Sacramento; and from that time until the day of his death his life was bound by strongest ties to the future of the State he loved so well—ever taking an active part in public affairs. He was one of those who organized the first city government of Sacramento, in the year 1849, and was a member of the Council and the second Mayor of that city.

General Winn was appointed by Governor Burnett—the first Civil Governor of the State—a Brigadier-General, sud he took a lively interest in the National Guard, which has since grown to be such a powerful organization; the pride of our State and the best defender of the liberties of free people.

General Winn was always a firm believer in fraternal societies and aided in the establishment of the first Odd Fellows' Lodge in the State, and ever took a warm interest in its welfare.

The WEEKLY UNION

It would have taken prophetic eyes to see the glory that would in after years crown his work. Yet mayhap in dreams that good old man, in his quite Sonoma home, as his strength grew weaker, and the burden of his years grew heavier, saw with clearer eyes of faith this day—and many days yet to come and many days live again a thousand times—but thou shalt stand unmoved—and we who placed thee here shall live our little lives, and love and hate, fail or succeed in all the petry things that fill our fleeting years, and die, but thou shall be unchanged, and thousands yet unborn shall follow us and pass on to the pale realms of shade and leave no trace. But thou shalt live through all the zens of the ages; bear eternal witness of the love of California's sons for charity and fraternity, God, and their native land!

Mayor Gregory spoke as follows:

Ladies and Gentlemen, Native Daughters and Sons:
The ceremonies of to day are expressive of the profound respect which we, as citizens, and as members of the Order of Native Sons of the Golden West, feel towards the late General A. M. Winn, in recognition of his public and private career as a worthy citizen of Sacramento, in being the first Mayor of our city, and as the founder of this grand and progressive Order.

His official career was characterized by integrity, impartial ity and public spirit, as evidenced by the record of his universal popularity among the people. His constant aim and ambition was REMARKS OF THE MAYOR. Grand President M. A. Dorn said:

Mr. Chairman, Ladies and Gentlemen: A work has been accomplished. By the patriotic and generous contribution to our Order, there has been erected to its founder a lasting and splendid monument. And on behalf and in the name of the Grand Parlor of the Native Sons of the Golden West, I have now the honor to accept at your hands this finished product of the sculptor's art. Believe me, sir, when I assure you that your committee, having been invested with extraordinary powers, was expected to give us something which would be both enduring and appropriate, and which would fittingly commenorate to all succeeding generations the virtues of him whose illustrious name it bears. The work which now stands before us, silent of tongue but filled with the voice of the ages, gives satisfactory assurance that in you our confidence has not been undeservedly reposed. Your choice of the granite of California as the material of which it was to be composed could not have been more happily made. I know no material which could more fittingly represent the strength and depth of the character of the ole pioneers of Sacramento-comi levelopment of the manifold res most populous and progressive communities in this great West.

His association with the Order of the Native Sons of the Golden West was in full accord with the same kindly feeling which characterized him as a man of pure impulses, of rich and ennobling instincts, in which fraternity predominated. Could General Winn but look upon the result of his handlwork and gaze upon the fresh vigor of youth which now occupies the most prominent positions in public and private life in our State, he would realize as we do, that the responsibility which was by him placed upon the shoulders of the young men is carnestly appreciated by each, and he would further see that the seeds which he had so judiciously sown had become deep-rooted, and are bearing good fruit. He would further become fully satisfied that the present generation has lost none of the instincts of integrity and loyalty which characterized his acts and those of his near associates. All honor therefore to his ms mory.

In behalf of the city of Sacramento I take much pleasure in expressing my grateful acknowledgment of this compliment to our city, to the memory of our parent Chief Executive and to our beloved order, as being a worthy tribute to a worthy cause.

Mayor Gregory was followed by P. S. Lawson, President of the Sacramento Society of California Ploneers, who made a short, eloquent and appropriate address, in which he paid a high tribute to the memory of General Winn and to the Order of Native Sons.

After music by the band and a song by the quartet a benediction was pronounced by Rev.

J. F. von Herrlich.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

"IN A BOLE," A Tory Member of Parliament Under

Arrest for a Breach of Trust. London, November 29th.—Robert Gent Davis, Member of Parliament for the Kennington Di-vision of Lambeth, was committed to prison on Tuesdayn for cotempt of Court in failing to pay $3,778 due from him as Administrator of his weekly sortete.

23,778 due from him as Administrator of his uncie's estate.

He appeared in Court to-day and offered to apologize and refund the money. The Judge, however, refused to interfere, and the order of arrest was handed to a Sheriff for execution.

Davis' debt was subscribed by a Tory Member of Parliament to prevent the disgrace of arrest of a member for a breach of trust.

In the Commons to-day Healy asked what steps Smith, the Government leader, intended to recommend the House to take regarding the charge against Davis, of using money received in a fiduciary capacity.

Smith denied the existence of any proof to in a fiductary capacity.

Smith denied the existence of any proof to justify him in asking the House to pronounce judgment on Smith.

judgment on Smith.

Robertson (Liberal) reminded the House that the expulsion of a member could be decreed for a breach of trust, and he asked if Davis' conduct did not amount to that.

Smith protested against hasty action in a matter affecting the character and honor of members. bers.

Healy intimated that unless the Government acted in the matter he would move on Tuesday next that a new writ be issued for an election to fill the seat now held by Davis.

LATER.—Davis has been imprisoned.

THE CASE OF MORONEY. In the Commons this evening, Bradlaugh moved to adjourn the House in order to call attention to the continued, imprisonment of Moroney in Kilmainham Jail, for contempt of Court under the Coercion Act. "POWERFUL WEAK."

The Parnell Inquiry Developing Into a Downright Farce.

London, November 29th.—Inspector Crane gave evidence before the Parnell Commission to-day as to the progress of crime in Ireand being coincident with the formation of branches of the League. Where League organization started outrages followed. Not every Leaguer was a moonlighter, but the majority of moonlighters were Leaguers.

On cross-examination, witness admitted that he had never been able to trace directly the connection of persons convicted of outrages with the League. No crime had occurred in connection with the Home Rule agitation or the extension of the franchise. Every crime arose over land disputes.

Inspector kiee deposed that he always understood that the moonlighters executed the behests of the League. On being cross-examined by Harrington, witness said he could not point out a single instance, supported by proof, where the League directed moonlight outrages.

IN THE LAND O' CAKES. Salisbury Advises the Scotch to Abandon the Home Rule Idea. London, November 29th.—Lord Salisbury, in a speech at Edinburgh, after returning thanks for a resolution of confidence in the Government, said he believed that Scotland was beginning to realize the dangers of Gladstonism, and was becoming Unionist. It was a matter of regret that Scotch affairs were so neglected. He urged the Scotch to put no trust in Gladstone's home rule promises, which, he said, were vague, because within Gladstone's own mind his plan was undefined.

EMIN BEY.

The Proposed New Expedition Into the Heart of Africa.

Heart of Africa.

London, November 29th.—Dr. Wi-smann is still undecided as to which route it will be best to take on going to the relief of Emin Bey. He favors, however, starting from Vitu, from which point he could avoid the dangers of Masailard and Uganda. Dr. Wissmann's brother, in company with a gentleman named Denhart, has large possessions in Vituland. He is making inquiries now among the natives and settlers there to find out whether they are inclined to support the explorer in his efforts to reach Emin Bey, and to assist him with men and provisions. It is doubtful yet whether material aid can be depended upon in that quarter. At all events, a final decision with regard to the route will probably not be made until Dr. Wissmann and his party arrive at Zanzibar.

AN EVENTFUL DAY.

The Coming Demonstration in Paris at PARIS, November 29th.—It is expected that 30,000 persons will take part in the Boadin demonstration. Dr. Boadin, a cousin of the revolutionist, refused to participate. A grandnephew has been found who will act as chief mourner. Other relatives are likely to attend. General Boulanger intends to hang a wreath on Baudin's tomb, but will go as an individual Deputy with a few friends.

Boalangist committees have decided to send wreaths, but without courting attention and to avoid a riot. The Communists will be out in force. Boadin's Tomb.

Leave the Service. Montreal, November 29th.—Lieutenant-Colonel Oulmet, M. P., Speaker of the House of Commons and Commander of the Sixty-fifth French Canadian Regiment, has resigned. The regiment's membership dwindled, owing to a refusal by the men to serve under a man who showed the white feather, as Ouimet did during the Northwest rebellion.

Sounding the African's Doom. Berlin, November 29th.—A German corvette ombarded Lindu to-day, and to-morrow will ombard Lazdani, a village opposite Zanzibar. The British fleet is co-operating.

BLOCKADE AT ZANZIBAR. ZANZIBAR, November 29th.—The English and German Admirals, in the Sultan's name, have published a proclamation to the effect that the blockade will commence at noon on Sunday.

The Jury Stood in With Him. London, November 29th.—The case of Valery Weidemann against Robert Horace Walpole, heir presumptive to the Earldom of Oxford, for breach of promise, was heard to-day. The plaintiff contracited herself and declined to answer vital questions. Finally, the jury interfered, the trial was stopped and a verdict for defendant was rendered.

endant was rendered. Frenchmen to Fight a Duel. Paris, November 29th.—Paul de Roulede and M. Reinach, editor of the Republique Française, will fight a duel to-morrow. The trouble was caused by an article in that paper attacking de Roulede's guidance of the Patriotic League.

The Vatican and Russia. ROME, November 29th.—After conference with Cardinal Rampella and the Russian Envoy, the Pope proposed to establish diplomatic relations with Russia, the same as with Germany, a Russian Minister being sent to the Vatican, but no Nuncio to St. Petersburg.

The German Socialists. BERLIN, November 29th.—The Socialist members of the Reichstag have published an appeal to their supporters to continue the agitation and collect funds for defraying the expenses of the ext election, which is expected to take place in he autumn of 1889.

Doctor Mackenzie Censured. London, November 29th.—Sir Morell Mackenzie has resigned from the College of Physicians, having been censured for a violation of professional confidence in connection with Emperor Frederick's illness.

An Irish Editor Sentenced. Dublin, November 29th.—E. Walsh, editor of The Peoples' Paper, published at Wexford, has been sentenced to five weeks' imprisonment, for making speeches intended to intimidate people.

A Very Poor Substitute. St. Petersburg, November 29th.—Recent borings in the Baku oil district produced warm water instead of petroleum. It is feared the supply of oil is becoming exhausted.

A Tory Victory. London, November 29th.—At the election in Holburn Division of Finbury to-day, the Tory candidate, Bruce, received 4,398 votes, and Early Compton, Liberal, 3,433. England's Aquatic Students.

London, November 29th.—The boat race be-tween Cambridge and Yale Universities has been fixed approximately for April 15th. Reduction in Irish Rents. DUBLIN, November 29th.—The Land Commission has reduced rents on the Kenmare estates at Killarney 50 per cent.

FIENDISH DEED,

TERRIBLE CRIME OF A MISSOURI SCHOOLMASTER.

A Young and Innocent Girl Brutally Outraged and Then Murdered -Suicide of the Fiend.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

St. Louis, November 29th.—The details of a horrible outrage, murder and suicide come from Nevada, Mo., to-day. The outrage and murder were committed about eight miles south of Nevada yesterday. Miss Wray, accompanied by George Corb, who taught a district school and boarded with Mrs. Wray, went to the city.

Corb returned last night alone, and said the girl had been dragged from his buggy and murdered by two unknown men. The body was found in a clump of bushes near the roadside, the young woman's throat having been cut from ear to ear.

Corb was placed under guard, and during the from ear to ear.

Corb was placed under guard, and during the night committed suicide by taking poison, thus escaping lynching.

The Coroner's inquest developed the fact that the girl had been ourraged and then murdered.

the girl had been outraged and then murdered.

LATER—Late this afternoon the Coroner's jury returned verdicts to the effect that the girl had been strangled by Corb, and that he committed suicide by taking poison.

Opinion is much divided as to the girl's death and the motive of the murderer. The mother of the dead girl says that Corb had been visiting her daughter since last August, but that they were not engaged. She says the girl was engaged to another school-teacher, named Homer, who lives in the neighborhood, and had been for two years. Corb was a school-teacher, and had taught more than a year.

SAN FRANCISCO AND VICINITY.

On Wednesday the Haverlys defeated the Pioneers by a score of 7 to 4. William Sweeney has been booked for vag-rancy at the city prison. He is ostensibly a hackman, but principally a procurer, and the latter was the offense for which he was run in. J. F. Ex-Senator Dick Creighton, who has been a refugee from justice for a year or so in Australia, is to return and serve out his time for jury-bribing. He loves his wife and babe, and wants to be near them.

Id. Ham. Harris, Land Agent for the State University and Assistant Secretary of the Board of Regents, is missing from his home in Berkeley. There seems to be no reason for his disappearance other than some mental aberration caused by sickness. Patrick Montague died of gas asphyxiation at Hackmeier's Hotel on Eddy street. He was about 25 years of age, and was evidently a laboring man. He had $200 deposited with the hotel and $8 65 on his person. He was decent in appearance and was apparently a man of steady habits. Famous Women.

It is a significant fact that most of the women who have achieved fame in art, literature or "affairs," have enjoyed vigorous health. This shows that the mind is never capable of the severe and continued application necessary to creative work un-less the body is at its best. The woman who aspires to fill an exalted place among her associates must be free from nervous debility and female weaknesses.
